CANADIAN WHO'S WHO

2007

Canadian Who's Who is the largest and most authoritative publication of its kind in Canada, offering instant access to nearly fourteen thousand notable Canadians in all walks of life. Published annually to provide current and accurate information, the familiar bright-red volume is recognised as the standard reference source of contemporary Canadian biography. Documenting the achievement of Canadians from a wide variety of occupations and professions, Canadian Who's Who records the diversity of culture in Canada.

Canadian Who's Who was first published in 1910 by The Times Publishing Company of London, England. After acquiring copyright from The Times in 1932, A. L. Tunnell published a second edition in 1936, which incorporated the two editions of Canadian Men and Women of the Time, a parallel reference work. From the 1936 edition to the 1975 edition, Canadian Who's Who was published under the direction of A. L. Tunnell.

Under his direction, with the exception of the war years, Canadian Who's Who was usually issued triennially, although five supplementary booklets (the Who's Who Biographical Service) were published at intervals between editions of the main volume. Canadian Who's Who began to be issued annually after the University of Toronto Press acquired publication rights in 1978. Thus while Canadian Who's Who 1979 was cumulative for the years 1976–9, the 1980 edition was the first to cover a one-year period.

In 1985 University of Toronto Press published a companion work, Canadian Who's Who Index 1898–1984. This complete index, compiled by Evelyn McMann, of the entire backlist of Canadian Who's Who volumes, includes full name, year of birth, profession or occupation, and the volume or volumes in which each biography appears. Incorporated within this index are the 1898 and 1912 editions of Canadian Men and Women of the Time, edited by Henry J. Morgan.

In addition, University of Toronto Press published a microfiche set of backlist volumes under the title, Canadian Who's Who in Microfiche 1898–1975, and Canadian Who's Who in Microfiche 1979–1988. The CD-ROM version of Canadian Who's Who has been published annually since 1997. The website is at www.utpress.utoronto.ca/cww.

Canadian Who's Who 2007 includes nearly fourteen thousand biographies of persons who are of current national interest for reference or inquiry. Over five thousand individuals were invited to complete questionnaires from which new biographies were compiled. Those already listed in earlier editions were given an opportunity to update their biographies.

There is no charge, nor is there any obligation whatsoever, for the inclusion of a biography in the Canadian Who's Who. Biographies are chosen on merit alone. Those listed are selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society, or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada. Detailed entries give date and place of birth, education, family details, career information, memberships, creative works, honours, languages, and awards, together with full addresses. Included are outstanding Canadians from business, academia, politics, sports, the arts and sciences, in fact from every area of human activity.

University of Toronto Press is proud to display the accomplishments of Canadians from all walks of life, from coast to coast, so that all Canadians, and indeed people worldwide, are aware of and inspired by the great contributions made by Canadians to their country and to the world beyond.
